The Expanded Inspiring Competence Program

With the September 2024 Inspiring Competence program, I am excited to introduce a new Team approach format—with three additional MCC mentors joining me in delivering Inspiring Competence 2024.

Joining me in the mentor coaching roles will be Annie Gelfand, MCC; Kim Miles, MCC; and Uta Rohde, MCC. Each of these coaches is also an Advanced Certified Mentor Coach (ACMC). Our shared vision for this collaboration is that this expansion offers increased synergies for deepening the learning and increasing the value for YOU individually and as a group experience.

I've had the privilege of mentoring and training these master coaches to ensure that each of us aligns to the vision for Inspiring Competence objectives and the learning and support we can offer you. At the same time, we offer you our unique perspectives and expertise that will surely deepen the experience for you as a participant. From beginning to end, we'll give you our best coaching efforts, along with insights, feedback, encouragement, and support.

I've provided their coaching profiles on the next page, and each is also listed on my website in the ACMC mentor directories.

Additional Benefits with the New Expanded Format

- ✓ You will now have four master coaches to choose from for your 1:1 mentor sessions. We are also offering an additional 1:1 mentor session for each of you. Three are included in your tuition and an additional mentor session #4 will be provided on a complimentary basis.
- ✓ Having four mentors to choose from offers the added benefit of learning from the experience, perspectives, and coaching styles of different master coaches.
- ✓ We can also offer you a broader range of 1:1 mentor session scheduling opportunities (Calendly) so you can schedule ahead and with a different coach each time if you wish to do so.
- ✓ I will be providing ongoing supervision for your mentor team, so I will be asking your permission to record and listen to some of the recordings of your 1:1 mentor sessions with Annie, Kim, and Uta. This enables me to also support you both directly and indirectly.

Our goal is to provide you with generous support for your learning and growth. You can help us help you by trusting each member of the team as your learning partner.

You will have until March 1, 2025, to complete your four 1:1 sessions (90 days max after the end of the course).

I hope you share my excitement about this new direction for the Inspiring Competence program! I have provided brief bios for Annie, Kim, and Uta so you can learn more about each of them. And, as always, I am open to questions and feedback or hearing about any concerns you may have regarding this transformative experience.

Introducing Annie, Kim, and Uta!

Annie Gelfand, MCC, ACMC

Coaching since 1997, Annie Gelfand is an ICF Master Certified Coach (MCC), the founder of Radical Wisdom, and the co-creator and host of the Essence of Mastery Summit. Her sweet spot is mentoring credentialed coaches on the path of coaching mastery. Annie is certain that the path of coaching mastery has the secret sauce it takes to help us be better human beings. Her sweet spot is mentoring credentialed coaches on the path of coaching mastery.

After learning of the daunting failure rate for the ICF MCC exam in 2009 (it was 93%, by the way), she set about exploring what would help MCC applicants successfully pass the exam. She discovered that mastery is not a destination but a way of BEING. The journey from PCC to MCC was life changing. It grew her personally and professionally, and her effectiveness as a coach catapulted into success she could not imagine.

Annie also founded the Wisdom Foundation, a not-for-profit humanitarian service focusing on education in coaching mastery. When coaches hold a space of love and non-judgment, when people feel seen, heard, and understood and learn how to do that for others, they explore and fulfill their gifts to become better human beings.

Annie holds a Master of Business Administration degree and has more than 30 years of experience in corporate and small business. She is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach, trained in Organizational and Relationship Systems Coaching and Team Coaching, and has been an ICF MCC Assessor since 2018.

Kim L Miles, MCC, ACMC

Kim Miles is an ICF Master Certified Coach (MCC) and Advanced Certified Mentor Coach (ACMC) who partners with executives and leaders to help them create fulfilling careers—and lives they love—by supporting them in navigating external situations and internal mindset challenges.

As a mentor coach, Kim supports coaches in expanding their skill mastery and, like her executive clients, helps them create a career and life they love.

Throughout Kim's career, she has served in a variety of organizations in roles including internal coach, leadership development specialist, project manager, corporate account manager, project engineer, contracts coordinator, and program controls analyst.

Her "super power" is helping people connect the dots for deeper awareness of their capabilities, strengths, and opportunities to create transformational change. Her credentials, experience, and education speak to her deep interest in organizational leadership development, foundational to sustaining healthy organizations—and the individuals who manage them — in a rapidly-changing environment.

Uta Komala Rohde, MCC, ACMC

Uta Rohde is an ICF Master Certified Coach (MCC, CPCC). Born in Germany, she began her career as a nurse working in ICUs before receiving her degree in Naturopathic Medicine/Psychology.

Uta works internationally as a mentor, coach, and teacher. She is a Certified Facilitator for Compassion Cultivation Training designed by Stanford University's Center for Compassion and Altruism Research and Education department, outreaching to a worldwide audience seeking practical tools and exercises designed to enhance awareness, compassion, and resilience.

Uta has practiced meditation for more than four decades, as well as teaching various meditation traditions.

She has lived with her husband in Sedona, Arizona, for the past 25 years.
